

TALKING WITH YOUR DOCTOR

Use this list of questions to keep track of what you want to ask your doctor at your next visit. Having an open conversation may help you decide if it's time to start treatment.

The more details you share with your doctor about your HIV, the better you can partner with him or her.

GENERAL QUESTIONS TO ASK:

 Is a once-daily treatment right for me?	_____
 Can I take it whenever I want?	_____
 How will my medication fit into my lifestyle?	_____
 Do I have to take my medication with food?	_____
 I take medicine for other things, too. Can I still take this HIV medication?	_____

ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS TO ASK IF YOU'RE CURRENTLY ON HIV-1 TREATMENT:

 When should I talk to my doctor about my current HIV treatment?	_____
 If I change HIV-1 medication, can I go back to my previous medication if the new one isn't working?	_____
 How is this new HIV-1 treatment different from the medication I am currently taking?	_____
 What side effects can I expect?	_____

 This Discussion Guide is not intended to diagnose a condition or disease state and does not replace the advice of your doctor.

 On the back of this form, please list all the medicines you take, including prescription and nonprescription medicines, vitamins, and herbal supplements. Take this completed form to your doctor.